Ignite! The 1920s

A Photo Slideshow

The 1920s

Research interesting, unknown details about these topics and present them to the class in an ignite! presentation. The purpose is to both give general information as well as to shed light on aspects of them which you find interesting (‘fun facts’) that most of us don’t know. Bring them to life for us! Give us:

1. Contextual details – to connect to what we already know
2. Interesting facts worth knowing (to “add branches to the tree,” as the Elon Musk blogger explained)
3. Images that deeply convey information

Research

- Begin at Wikipedia or similar (for basic background info)
- Focused research at outside source
- Reliable source
  - .edu, .org, .gov
  - Author listed
  - Links to other sources available
  - Source date
  - Info can be verified elsewhere (snopes, factcheck, etc)

What is an Ignite! presentation?

- 2 minutes
- 8 content slides (plus title & citations slides)
- 8-16 images
- NO TEXT on content slides - images only
- slides run automatically every 15 seconds
- speech prepared & rehearsed

Due Date: Wednesday, Jan. 14

- Al Capone
- Al Jolson
- Al Smith
- Andrew P. Kehoe
- Babe Ruth
- Calvin Coolidge
- Charles Lindbergh
- Charlie Chaplin
- Clarence Birdseye
- Cold summer of 1927
- Cole Porter
- D.W. Griffith
- Dorothy Parker
- Duke Ellington
- Earle Dickson
- Eugenics
- F. Scott Fitzgerald
- Gershwin brothers
- Gloria Swanson
- Herbert Hoover
- Jack Dempsey
- jukebox
- Karl Jansky
- Langston Hughes
- Louis Armstrong
- Mississippi River flood of 1927
- Mount Rushmore
- Philip Drinker
- Philo T. Farnsworth
- Robert Goddard
- Ruth Snyder
- Sacco & Vanzetti
- The Jazz Singer
- the lie detector
- Ty Cobb
- Warren Harding
- Warren Marrison
- Zelda Sayre (Fitzgerald)
- Zora Neale Hurston